NAMEANING / CLASSROOM RESOURCE

My Chinese Name

A conversation sheet for choosing, understanding and using your name.

01 Write your name

Chinese characters

Pinyin with tone marks

Family name

Given name

02 Make it personal

What do the characters mean together?

What connects this name to you: sound, meaning, or something you value?

03 Ask your teacher

- How would you pronounce the full name?
- What impression does it give as a person's name?
- Does it have any unwanted sound-alikes or familiar associations?

Notes / changes to consider

04 Try an introduction

Practice saying your full name, then explain why you chose it.

You can try it in class before deciding whether to keep it.

EXPLORE NAMES

nameaning.com/free-chinese-name-generator.html

CHECK AN EXISTING NAME

nameaning.com/chinese-name-confidence-checklist.html

Generator: initial free credits; further use may require a plan. Checker: free, no account required.

Use tool explanations as a starting point for discussion with your teacher.